Mode	Your Score	Score Description	Strategy
Interpersonal Listening and Speaking	A	Your AAPPL Interpersonal Listening/Speaking score of N-3 means that you can say a number of things about yourself. You can list, name, and identify everyday things with words and phrases and an occasional simple sentence. You can ask and answer some very common and familiar questions. You can do all of this in a way that your teacher and others who are used to language learners can understand most of what you are saying.	Practice lots of conversations in which you start it, keep it going, and end it; practice asking questions in order to do this. Practice saying as much as you can about yourself. Try to use as many sentences as you can.

Interpretive Reading	A	Your AAPPL Interpretive Reading/Listening score of I-2 means that you understand main ideas and supporting facts in short passages on familiar topics. You may need to read/hear the passage more than once. You may need visual cues, context clues, and prior knowledge to help you understand what you read/hear.	Practice reading/listening to longer passages or simple stories. To deepen your understanding start to look at how the passage is organized. Compare what you read or hear to what you already know.

Interpretive Listening	A	Your AAPPL Interpretive Reading/Listening score of N-3 means that you understand words, phrases and an occasional simple sentence. You may need to read/hear something more than once. You may need visual cues such as pictures, your own knowledge of a topic, familiarity with parts of words or words that are similar to English in order to understand what you read/hear.	Use what the passage says about the topic to understand the main idea. Try to use different approaches to understanding such as looking/listening for clues such as pictures, titles, words or parts of words that you recognize, words that are similar to words in your own language. Think about what you already know about a topic for additional clues about the topic. Then go back and reread/re-listen and see what more you can understand.
